Vrednotenje pisnega sporočanja

Pri pisnem sporočanju ob razpredelnico pod pisnim sestavkom dodelimo ustrezno popravno znamenje za vsak kriterij.

Če učenec pri posameznem kriteriju ni dosegel vseh možnih točk, je treba dodati komentar s kratko utemeljitvijo.

<sup>1</sup> Moška slovnična oblika je uporabljena enakovredno za oba spola.

UVODNA NAVODILA ZA VREDNOTENJE

Upoštevamo samo odgovore v angleškem jeziku.

Če je učenec pravilen odgovor označil drugače, kot je predvideno, a jasno, ga upoštevamo.

Če je učenec v prostor za odgovor napisal ali označil več odgovorov (npr. več črk v polja razpredelnice), odgovor ni pravilen.

Če je učenec vpisal rešitve v razpredelnico in še ene izven predvidenega prostora za rešitve in ni jasno označil popravka, se upoštevajo samo odgovori na predvidenem mestu za rešitve.

TWO SCHOOLS

Reporter: Today's report at Radio 1 is about two completely different types of schools. Mike is going to talk about his school, Harrow, and Emma about her school, Urswick.

Mike: Hello everyone! I'm Mike and I go to Harrow School. There are 230 boys. It's a rather small school. The students live in an old building near the school and only go home to visit their families at the end of each term.

Emma: Hi, I'm Emma and I attend The Urswick School. It is a public elementary school. It's quite large, around 750 students go to this school for boys and girls.

Mike: At Harrow, students wear uniforms. We have to wear a blue blazer, grey trousers, a white shirt, a black tie, black shoes and a straw hat.

Emma: At Urswick, we also have to wear a uniform. We wear a grey jumper, blue trousers for boys and a blue skirt for girls, a tie and black shoes.

Reporter: I hear both schools are very good at sports.

Mike: Yes, sports are very important at Harrow. Students play cricket, rugby, football and basketball almost every day, even on Sundays.

Emma: At Urswick, students play football, rugby and basketball. Occasionally, we have a games day. On that day we also do other sports, like athletics and gymnastics or even yoga.

Reporter: I understand that students at both schools have lessons from Monday to Friday.

Mike: Yes, but at Harrow we also have lessons on Saturday mornings! Before the lessons start, all students have breakfast at eight o'clock together with the teachers in the school dining room.

Emma: The students at Urswick have a breakfast club only on weekdays. We meet our classmates for breakfast and chat before the lessons start. We mustn't stay too long because we have to be in class on time - our teachers are very strict about that.

Reporter: What about homework?

Mike: Well, of course we don't like it but at Harrow, teachers help us with homework every afternoon before tea.

Emma: We do our homework every afternoon for two hours when we get home from school. We usually work alone or sometimes with our classmates. Our parents help if necessary.

Reporter: And bedtime?

Emma: We go to bed when we want to unless our parents tell us differently.

Mike: At Harrow, we have to be in bed by half past nine and turn off the lights at quarter past ten. It's a school rule we must follow.

Reporter: Ok, thank you both for telling us about your schools. It was very interesting.

Emma & Mike: Thank you.

THE ZOOKEEPER

I love animals, so I often visit London Zoo. I am lucky because my dad works there as a zookeeper and he knows a lot about animals. I've got a yearly ticket so I can go to the zoo whenever I want, but I usually go at the weekends and during holidays.

The zoo is a thirty-minute walk from my home, but I never walk. There is an underground station opposite my home. I take the underground and it only takes me three minutes. But my dad never takes the underground. He goes by car. He says it is easier for him.

My dad thinks that working as a zookeeper is fun. He knows a lot of interesting facts about most animals in the zoo. He loves his job. Well, there is something that he doesn't like: sitting at his desk in his office and writing reports, which is not interesting at all.

There are 20,000 animals in the zoo but my dad only takes care of tigers and lions. When he comes to work, he first checks if his animals are all right. In the wild, big cats eat giraffes and zebras but in the zoo my father feeds them beef. When he lets them out, he tidies their indoor cages. He says this is a dirty, smelly job. It's very important that the animals' cages are tidy and safe.

In winter some animals have to stay inside all the time. The zookeepers make sure that they are warm and have something to do. They give them toys. But lions and tigers can go out. You can see them running and rolling in the snow. They have lots of fun.

You can become A keeper for a Day in London Zoo. This is a great chance to get up close to your favourite animal and feed it. Of course, you don't get any money for this, but it's a great experience. My dad likes to lead Keepers for a Day round the zoo. At the end of the day, he invites them to the zoo café where they get lunch. They can also buy T-shirts and tickets at a lower price.
